Please join us to support the Nsumba medical mission.

Dean Bessie Katsilometes, Dr. Gabriel Bargaen, and Ms. Judy Thorne of Idaho State University Meridian-Health Science Center will be joining the Nsumba mission along with other professionals and students from the Boise area.

Come take in the atmosphere of Salt Tears Noshery and Green Chutes and learn about the Nsumba Project while enjoying African music and dancing.

It is an event for the whole family.
